VERSE 2:

You're not on your own,
 You feel a chill
 Go through your bones,
 You're not on your own.
 There's something wrong,
 You call your doctor
 On the phone,
 He's not at home.
 You leave a message
 After the tone,
 "I'm cold as stone."

VERSE 3:

You're back again,
 You send a curse out
 In the night,
 You're back alright!
 You're travel worn,
 Standing here
 In the town where you were born,
 It's not your home.
 The mirror sees you
 So alone
 Cold as stone.
